| Title of Resource: | Video: “How to Resolve Conflicts and Create Connection with Nonviolent Communication”. |
| Why use this resource? | The video provides a summary of the principles of Nonviolent Communication. |
| What will you get from using this resource? | This video introduces a communication model developed by Dr Marshall Rosenberg, commonly referred to as Nonviolent Communication (NVC). NVC is used around the world to resolve conflicts and create peace in individuals, families, groups, organizations and warring nations. The focus of the video is on one central idea: To create a connection we need to let go of focusing on who is right and who is wrong and focus on each other's feelings and needs instead. The video presents a short engaging role-play with puppets demonstrating a common conflict situation and a dialogue showing how the conflict could be resolved using this simple communication model. |
